

INFORMATION TO PARENTS AND CONSENT FORM – Religious Instruction and Other Instruction

Religious Instruction (RI) informs students about the beliefs and values of a particular religion. It is delivered by volunteers of a faith group using instructional materials approved by that faith group. These materials are not part of the formal school curriculum and are not endorsed by the Department of Education and Training.

Participation in RI is not compulsory.

The Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 requires schools to provide RI for up to one hour each week if approached by a faith group seeking to provide RI and students of that faith attend the school.

Any student (except Prep students) may participate in RI if a parent has given consent and indicated a religion, on the Application for Student Enrolment Form or in other written advice to the principal.

Any child not participating in RI, or whose nominated religion is not represented within the RI program/s at the school, will receive other instruction by a qualified member of school staff in a separate location during the time RI is held. Other instruction will relate to subject areas that have already been covered in class. At any time, parents may provide written instruction to the principal to change their preference for their child to participate in or be withdrawn from RI.

The faith groups that provide religious instructors to deliver the program at our school are listed below:

The aims and objectives of each program are as follows:

- To share the good news of the Gospel.
- To build positive relationships with staff and students.
- To develop skills needed for students to explore nature and content of Christian Faith.
- Instruct in major events, concepts, teaching of scripture.

Further details about our school's RI program/s and other instruction are available on the school's website. You may also wish to access the Department's RI policy statement available at <http://education.qld.gov.au/schools/school-operations/ri-policy-statement.html> for further information.

The school will advise parents of child/ren participating in these programs if a faith group requires funds to cover the expense of materials used in RI.

You will also be notified of any changes to RI or other instruction.
